

Society of St. Andrew
Salvaging Food to Feed the Hungry
to the Glory of God in Deed and in Truth

Vision Statement

The Society of St. Andrew envisions a world in which physical and spiritual hungers are met through God's grace and abundance in Jesus Christ.

Mission Statement

The Society of St. Andrew brings people together to harvest and share healthy food, reduce food waste, and build caring communities by offering nourishment to hungry neighbors.

Programs

Toward these ends, SoSA facilitates three main programs.

- The Potato & Produce Project organizes the salvage of bulk potatoes and other produce that cannot be sold at markets for cosmetic reasons. SoSA arranges to bag and ship these items to hunger relief agencies throughout the country.
- The Gleaning Network facilitates volunteers entering fields at the farmers' request to pick good produce that is left or cannot be sold after the harvest. The produce is delivered free of charge to local hunger relief agencies, public housing communities and individuals in need.
- Harvest of Hope events are study and mission retreats. Week-long events are geared to high school youth and weekend events are intergenerational. In addition to regular gleaning, Harvest of Hope participants learn about hunger and poverty through a dynamic and engaging curriculum.

Organizational Structure

SoSA's national office is located in Big Island, Virginia. Regional offices are located in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, and Tennessee.

The North and South Carolina regional office is located in Duke Memorial UMC in Durham, NC. The state office is responsible for coordinating all SoSA programs in North and South Carolina. Regional Area Coordinators support and promote the overall program.
