Society of St. Andrew Lenten Devotions & Giving Program

Ash Wednesday, March 2. The ashes placed on our foreheads this day remind us that our lives are brief, and that all we are and all we have come from God, our Creator. Begin your Lenten time of daily reading, reflection, prayer, and giving today by using The Cup of Salvation the devotional booklet prepared for you by the Society of St. Andrew, a nationwide ministry focused on feeding spiritual and physical hungers.

Sunday, March 6. The season of Lent is a time of self-examination and sacrifice. The various ways Christians observe Lent are as diverse as our personalities! We can sacrifice to get closer to God or we can take on something. In today’s devotional “Allowing “It” to Happen, you will see that all of us can find a ways to observe Lent, share the good news and serve others. Continue your Lenten time of daily reading, reflection, prayer, and giving, using The Cup of Salvation, the devotional booklet prepared for your use by the Society of St. Andrew.

Sunday, March 13. In The Cup of Salvation, our Lenten devotional booklet from Society of St. Andrew, today’s writer of Sacrifice of Thanksgiving, the writer describes a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for the blood poured out by Jesus. What sacrifices can we make to feed hungry and broken hearted people? A donation of any amount to the Society of St. Andrew is a sacrifice that helps fill those broken hearts with hope, and a nutritious meal.

Sunday, March 20. In today’s devotion in The Cup of Salvation, So Many Blessings, the writer begins by describing the feeling of helplessness we feel when we come face to face with overwhelming circumstances but ends with sharing praises. The Society of St. Andrew challenges us to remember our desperate 40 million children and adults here in the United States who suffer from hunger, and struggle to put enough food on the table each day. Does your daily spiritual focus this season include giving? Every $3.00 you set aside for Society of St. Andrew will put 26 healthy meals on the plates of those who need it most, giving both you and them a blessing!

Sunday, March 27. Today’s devotional writer in Society of St. Andrew’s Lenten devotional, The Cup of Salvation, writes The Little Wooden Cup with Enormous Meaning, about a treasured family heirloom that is full of symbolism about the greatest sacrifice. Will you consider sacrificing today by giving to the Society of St. Andrew, a nationwide ministry with a vision to end physical hunger? Every $3 provides 26 meals of nutritious, fresh food for the hungry!

Sunday, April 3. Today’s devotional writer in The Cup of Salvation writes Cups and Cups and Cups about self-examination and consciously choosing between the cup of the world and the cup of the Lord. By feeding hungry brothers, sisters and children with your donations to the Society of St. Andrew, we are choosing the cup of the Lord. During your devotional time this week, ask God to remind us to not grow weary in doing what is right – helping brothers and sisters in the United States and around the world have enough to eat.

Palm Sunday, April 10. Today’s devotion is titled Hope in Helplessness about being out of control and being lead to the cross. As you read and pray through this week’s devotions in The Cup of Salvation, know that you are on a journey to the cross with the Society of St. Andrew. Your support helps hungry families be in more control of their food insecurity! Remember those families for whom hunger issues are not yet resolved and still a daily reality.
Easter Sunday, April 17. Today’s devotion in The Cup of Salvation is titled God Incarnate. The author writes about the gifts of love and mercy that we receive from God and sharing those same gifts with other people in need. Will you be “God with skin on” and provide food to families in need by your generous donations to the Society of St. Andrew? Please make daily, healthy food possible for our hungry brothers and sisters in Christ because Jesus is Alive! The Lord is Risen! Happy Easter!
